CENTRAL ILLINOIS DEATH NOTICES,

1848 -- 1870.

COMPILED AND PRINTED
BY MILO CUSTER,
BLOOMINGTON, ILLINOIS,

1924.

PUBLISHER'S NOTE;

The material for this compilation was copied chiefly from the files of the Daily and Weekly Pantagraph, owned by the Pantagraph Company, and a file of the Daily Leader, in Withers Public Library, at Bloomington, Ill. Due acknowledgement is herewith made to the owners of these files for assistance in making examinations. Some material was obtained from small files of the Bloomington Intelligencer and Western Whig, in Withers Library, and in the collections of the Central Illinois Historical Society. A few death notices were also added that were found in a file of the Illinois State Journal, 1862, in Withers Library, and a file of miscellaneous Illinois newspapers for the year 1857, owned by the Pantagraph.

The death notices and obituaries of this period are exceedingly brief, as a rule, and in most instances the data given is very meager. In cases of Civil War soldiers, the data found has been supplemented by additional information shown in the Illinois Adjutant General's Reports.

The author trusts this list, containing approximately six hundred names, will be of some service to the genealogical worker of the future.

N. B. The following notices were unintentionally omitted from their proper place in the body of this work;
